Technology Interaction:

TIM HOLLADAY, Co-Founder and CEO CrowdMics

- We are using a new technology for audience interaction. On your phone, go to crowdmics.online/nanow and enter your name. You will be able to answer polls and send your questions.
- All polling will be anonymous — answers will be a composite of all responses and not attributed to any single individual.
- Questions you submit for the panel will not be anonymous and will appear on screen with the name you used to log in.
- Do not wait to submit your questions. Send them as you think of them.
